Willian T. Joynes, esq., has been unani mously re-elected President of the Petersburg Railroad Company.

Absence from town, (having only returned last night,) has precluded my notice, until the present moment, of the criticism, the editor of the Virginia Sentinel, in his paper of the 10th instant, has thought proper to make upon the remarks I made in the late Whig and American Convention, that nominated H. W. Thomas, esq., as a Candidate for Congress from this district. I acknowledge, in the fullest sense, the right of those who may fill public stations, or address tural deductions from positions assumed or acts performed, I also concede. My notice must be brief, as I have other things to do besides write. The editor of the Sentinel sey's interest, designed to protect him from some criticisms of ours." If the editor designed to convey the idea that I knew anything about said article before I saw it in the morning's issue of the Gazette, his inference is incorrect. I presume he saw and knew of it as soon as I did. With regard to running a candidate for Congress or any other office, open alike to all the legal voters, my morality is this: that any gentleman has the right to be a candidate, and the voters the right to vote for who they please.

Will the editor of the Virginia Sentinel make the contrary appear? I pass over the districting of the State as a matter so notorious to all the people of the State, as to need no comment. But says the Editor of the Sentinel "has Mr. Massey, shown the magnanimity that he thus demands? has he even counseiled a sacrifice on the altar of party generosity?" I reply yes, in many instances, and add that like Mr. R. M. Smith, when the party to which I belong has made nominations, I have supported them. Can Mr. Smith say less? Again says the Editor of the Sentinel, "But Mr. Massey commences as a democratic avenger -his right to speak for the Democrats being evidenced by his course in our municipal af Will the Editor of the Sentinel, be kind enough to say by what right he assumed in the last Presidential contest to call upon the American party, to support Mr. Buchanan? Was it because previous to that time misrepresent them and indulging in the most opprobious epithets towards that party? Is it because of the tender regard and constant sympathy for the opposition, that he now calls upon them to support Gov. Smith? I have heard it said, "Consistency, thou art a jewel." How long, Mr. Smith, had thy memory to run, when in your report of the proceedings of the ratification meeting held at Sarepta Hall, you said that the speakers did not mention the American party? Did you represent facts? Touching my remarks about holding a Democratic Convention, and Gov. Smith's opposition to it, if I am in fault, there are a goodly number of the Democratic sulting in the selection of a gentleman, whose election would make a vacancy in the Virginia The inference I suppose is, that Mr. Massey desires to fill that vacancy should it be created. I do not object to the inference, but it is due to truth to say, that at the time I made the motion, I did not expect Mr. Thomas to be the nominee. Were it necessary, I think Mr. Thomas would correborate Will Mr. R. M. Smith allow me to ask him if he was not in favor of creating a vacancy in our Custom House? If you were desirous of making this cacancy, had it ever been suggested to you that you might be appointed to fill a vacancy thus occurring? If I have not the right to speak for, or to, Democrats, will the editor of the Sentinel of King George, on Thursday, 7th of April-being allow members of the Democratic party to and carried off to Alexandria for sale. Susspeak to that party through the columns of his paper? The point I desired to make in my respeech, was, that in view of circumstances and facts, I could not see how Gov. Smith (as he was reported) should not know the that occasion, I reiterate. As I then remarked, some of the facts came under my own notice; for other facts I was dependent upon other gentlemen. Since I commenced this reply, I have seen one of the gentleman. who says he is of opinion that I made a mistake in saying that the objection urged to Gov. Smith's attending the American meeting, was not because his aid to the American party would be less available, on the contrary, it might be detrimental to his (Gov. Smith's) interest with the Democratic party. This, however, I do not consider a material point, but a mere side issue, and not affecting the main object. Will the editor of the Virginia Sentinel say that Gov. Smith did
